About the Speaker:

Mrs. Carrie Lam, GBS, JP Secretary for Development Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government.

Mrs. Carrie Lam has been appointed Secretary for Development of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) Government since 1 July 2007. Prior to becoming a Principal Official, Mrs. Lam was a career civil servant. She joined the Administrative Service in 1980, and rose to the highest rank of Administrative Officer Staff Grade A1 in 2006. Mrs. Lam served in policy areas covering medical and health, security, district administration and public finance. In the recent decade, she held the positions of Director of Social Welfare, Permanent Secretary for Planning and Lands and Director-General, Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in London. She was Permanent Secretary for Home Affairs before her appointment as Secretary for Development. Development Bureau is newly created in the third term of HKSAR Government to pursue the Chief Executive's vision for progressive development. Mrs Lam's portfolio includes planning and lands, public works, water supply, greening and landscape, heritage conservation, harbourfront enhancement, building safety and urban renewal.
