The Italian Chamber of Commerce in collaboration with Executive Mandarin is launching an Executive Mandarin Beginner Course (Module 1A) suitable for non-Cantonese speakers (expatriates or overseas Chinese) who never learnt or have very little knowledge about Chinese language. The course outlines basically cover the basic daily & most practical conversation in Mandarin. The whole course structure is designed to develop the learners’ ability to listen & speak in this stage. After the whole Beginner I course (Module 1A+ 1B), students are expected to be able to communicate with native Mandarin speakers in basic daily situations.

COURSE COMPONENTS

Vocabulary: contains the most commonly used words selected from daily speech.
Conversations and Readings: introduces new grammar points and shows how the words and expressions are used in real situations.

Key sentence: helps learners to remember and practice important expressions.

Notes: a section that explains difficult words and grammar points that have not been introduced in the Grammar, or introduces relevant cultural background.

Grammar: the grammar explanation focuses on the most important grammatical structures and rules in Chinese.

Activities: oral exercises for learners to practice what they have learned from teachers.

Cultural Focus: helps learners to understand Chinese culture.

The courses will cover the following topics:
